Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Massive discount sale from Friday June 10th on ladies' designer dresses and accessories.

Cemetery Sunday Devotions in the Relic at 3p.m. on 31st July

Please let all your family know the date and time well in advance so that they can put in their calendar. We always have it the last Sunday in July to be close to the Feast of St. James our Patron Saint. We were not able to have it due to Covid. It is great for families to be able to return to Kilbeggan for the day, and to meet family and friends.

All the information from the questionnaires filled in by you and people around the diocese for the synod have been collated. The synthesis is now available on the synod page of www.dioceseofmeath.ie or on our parish website www.kilbegganparish.ie A sub-committee of the National Steering Committee will now work on all the syntheses received from the dioceses and from other ecclesial groups with the aim of submitting the national synthesis on 15th Aug. Please pray for all involved in the process:

Holy Spirit, teach us the way we must go, and how we are to pursue it.

June, the month of the Sacred Heart

Speaking at his general audience on June 1, Pope Francis said: “Today we begin the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, source of love and peace... Open yourselves to this love and take it ‘to the ends of the earth,’ witnessing to the goodness and mercy that flow from the Heart of Jesus.”

The Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus on the Friday following the second Sunday after Pentecost, which this year falls on the 24th June. The nine-day Novena starts on Thursday 16th June.

Copies of the Novena Prayer are available with other prayer cards on the tables at the entrance to the church.

Novena Prayer to the Sacred Heart

O Divine Jesus, who said, “Ask and you shall receive, Seek and you shall find, Knock and the door shall be opened to you”.

Relying on these promises I come with confidence during this Novena to ask of you the favours I need.

With a lively faith in you, I come to ask....

(Share your petitions silently with the Sacred Heart)

From whom shall we ask, Lord Jesus, if not from You, whose heart is an unfailing source of grace and merits?

Most loving Heart of my God, I believe in your personal love for me, and therefore, O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You

Summary of the Holy Father's words, General Audience, 8 June 2022:

Dear brothers and sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the meaning and value of old age in the light of God’s word, we now consider the words spoken by Jesus to Nicodemus: “No one can see the kingdom of God without being born anew” (Jn 3:3) by water and the Holy Spirit. This spiritual rebirth does not negate or detract from the value of our earthly existence, but points it towards its ultimate fulfilment in the eternal life and joy of heaven. Our age, with its frantic pursuit of the myth of eternal youth, needs to relearn this truth and to see every age of life as preparation for the eternal happiness for which we were created. Jesus tells Nicodemus: “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish, but may have eternal life (v. 16). The elderly, through their faith, wisdom and experience, can bear convincing witness to the presence of God’s kingdom in our midst and the authentic meaning of our earthly existence as a foretaste of that true “eternal youth” which awaits us in the new creation inaugurated by Christ and his Holy Spirit.
